than that or possible to deceive!"*

BULBUE 01, #2

19 Feb 98

"Boris XII" Begins!

We have cast "Boris XII". The players shall be Wade Forbille as Russia, Phil McCabe as Italy, Jack Shocklett as England, Ron Fisher as Germany, Jen "Wormstrong" Fryling in the familiar role of America, Peter Boyars as France, and Matt Martens (now an e-mail) as Turkey. Your first deadline will be in for the April issue, so you'll have two months to plot those plots and scheme those schemes. Interestingly, no one got worse than their fourth choice. Some press appears on p.2.

The considerable difference in the print quality between this issue and last issue is due to using an Epson Color 600 printer this time rather than our longwriter 1 dot matrix we used last issue.

STANDBY ALERT: We have possible openings for the following positions

STELLAR CONQUEST, "Wilica T. Khan": junior e-mail player

Interested parties should send in orders for each position they are interested in. If the present player again fails to submit orders on time, a random drawing will be held.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "It's not taken to reason ... Reason always means what someone else has to say."

Lee Kandler is looking for someone with e-mail savvy to take over as Miller Number Custodian. The Miller numbers are in DFP variants as the Boardman numbers (e.g., 10990 for "Boris XI") are in regs for DFP games, providing a means of identification and archiving of results. If interested, contact him at the addresses on pp.18 & 19.

Someone has been messing with Debbie Delaney's mail in federal offense(s). I've lost her work address at the moment, so call her if you need to contact her. She'll be working soon, so she'll have a new address shortly.

BOOKS & EUDORA

This month's Madeline Bolden Press Excellence Award (and first issue) goes to Rich Copeland for his Berkeley-Venice article in "What Inquisition".

This month's Mr. Nar Super-stubby Book is added at John Bryden for lack of updates to orders.

RUSSIANS SNATCH HOLLAND

WINTER 1911/12

X
100G

TROOP MOVEMENTS

Russia retreats F IOK to HCL, as Germany ends with 12 and Russia 2.

RENAS MORGE: The dynamics of this game were pretty well determined by the number and frequency of MBMs and personnel changes. France changed hands five times between three players. Italy was paralysed by a string of MBMs. Turkey played short of units due to MBMs in the Winter/Spring turns and probably ought to have been eliminated early rather than emerging the eventual winner. Congratulations to Andy York for steering a shaky, undermanned Turkey to victory – his second as a steady player. Germany might have been able to win it had he had more cooperation from the Russian or elected to hit France during one of her frequent MBMs. Over all, an interesting study.

Austria Annihilated! Germany Persists!

Spring 1906

XI
1997D

REDWOOD: The last Russian army has been driven into the sea, thus ending Emperor Peter's dreams of glory. True, should Turkey expeditiously abandon GREE in the fall, the Habsburgs would still technically remain in the fight, but they would be unable to raise a unit and be unable to acquire a home center to do so. England and France, having disposed of their mutual German foe, now appear to be at each other's throats and oblivious to the growing Russian menace. Meanwhile Russia and Turkey spar off over the Austrian spoils.

France to Russia: Russia help me out here.

BORIS XII PRESS

Belgower Bulletin: Galactic Emperor Wootengus has established a new colony on a rather attractive and pleasant little planet in the Milky Way galaxy. Once the local inhabitants have recognized his authority over their local planetary affairs he intends to open the planet up to tourists. Needless to say, all the standard rules about appearing to be a planetary native will still apply, but the abundance of water on the planet and the truly exquisite food (sustained human species in a petroleum state, for example) will make this a garden spot worth visiting. The Emperor once again demonstrates his tender care for all the worthy life forms under his dominion!

BALKAN WARS VI SERBIA, TURKEY CLOBBERED RUMANIA LEADS Fall 1911

MAP CLARIFICATION: The territory west of SRO is Texas (TIR), not Iran.

CLIFFHANGER: Perhaps his recent state visit to St Petersburg has left Sultan Ah Ren confused, but the Black Sea has not frozen over in nearly a millennium. His unshakable conviction that he had an army stationed on SSS is otherwise inexplicable. That Fall of Russia took it on the chin this year with King David of Rumania becoming the premier power in the region. Bulgaria has recouped last year's losses. Time for a five-way on Rumania?

STELLAR CONQUEST

All three games have had their problems. An error in the Turn 35 adjudication and miscommunication has delayed "James T. Kirk" (aka "JTK"). "William T. Riker" (aka "WTR"); the e-mail game has been withdrawn since one of the players has had a sudden surge at work, requested a replacement, but alas! I have no e-mail types at the ready (Come back, all is forgiven). "W. Thomas Riker" (aka "Dominy") has suffered from mail problems. And then my primary files on these games got trashed from my hard disk. And the crucial JTK file couldn't be read from the 1gs disk (you'd think because the Mac overwrote it at a different speed).

WTR/aka JTK should be on track now. "Dominy" should be moving within the week since I've reconstructed most of it. "WTR" awaits an eager volunteer.

The Hunt

Farrow Wins 3rd Chase!

Farrow Takes Fractional Lead!

THE HUNT is a word game inspired by James Lipton's book, "An Exaltation of Larks", where we propose a noun and the players are asked to propose a collective noun to fit, such as "flock" for "sheep" or "pack" for "team". Dore and Mr Nar will rank each entry for each word and the best score will be the winner. Each word is a possible 1 point, but the point will be split if either more than one player suggests the word or two or more words are ranked equally. The first player to score 10 points wins six free beers of this mug. THE HUNT is run in Chases or rounds. We report the third Chase of the 4th Hunt and begin the fourth. Gratitude, to the Hunt!
